Introduction. Nathaniel Hawthorne's 1850 The Scarlet Letter is a story of adultery in the 17th century's Puritan Boston. As its basic settings suggest, the novel is a razor-sharp manifesto against the moral and social standards of that time. Moreover, as discussed thoroughly in this paper, Hawthorne's work invites the reader to investigate a wide array of micro-level matters, in particular the perception of the self, the woman and the conflict between one's emotional world and reality.
